

Josie Lamothe Memorial Award for Outstanding Service

In order to recognize outstanding contributions to Residence Life, the Residence Life Professional Association is pleased to continue giving the Josie Lamothe Memorial Award for Outstanding Service. The award is named after someone who made a significant contribution to Residence Life in Western Canada. All members of the RLPA are encouraged to nominate deserving individuals. The Executive Board will evaluate and select the award recipient and present the award during the RLPA Annual General Meeting.

The criteria upon which nominations will be evaluated are as follows:

- Outstanding contributions to the RLPA through participation at the executive or committee levels
- Outstanding contributions to Residence Life within a post-secondary institution in Alberta, British Columbia or Saskatchewan
- Exemplary record in service as a mentor to other Residence Life professionals or Resident Assistants
- Successful implementation of unique or innovative programs contributing to the betterment of Residence Life at an institutional or provincial level.
