RESIDENCE LIFE PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION Josie Lamothe Memorial Award for Outstanding Service

In order to recognize outstanding contributions to Residence Life, the Residence Life Professional Association is pleased to continue giving an Outstanding Service Award. All members of the RLPA are encouraged to nominate deserving individuals. Nominations can be forwarded to any member of the executive. The executive will evaluate and select the award recipient. The award will be presented during the RLPA Annual General Meeting.

The criteria upon which nominations will be evaluated is as follows:

- Outstanding contributions to the RLPA through participation at the executive or committee levels.
- Outstanding contributions to Residence Life within post-secondary institution within Alberta, BC or Saskatchewan.
- Exemplary record in service as a mentor to other Residence Life professionals or Resident Assistants.
- Successful implementation of unique or innovative programs contributing to the betterment of Residence Life at an institutional or provincial level.

Deadline February 5, 2014. Submit the nomination forms and supporting documents to:

Clint Galloway, Past President, RLPA
